Fantastic part cave Finca with spectacular mountains views in the lovely town of La Murada. La Murada has everything you need from bars, restaurants and supermarkets and is just a short distance to both Alicante and Murcia airports. The Finca which is part cave and is run off solar panels so you can keep the costs down over the winter months and consists of spacious double bedrooms, a large lounge area with wood burners and beautiful kitchen. Outside you have your own private swimming pool with a bar area and outside kitchen over looking stunning mountain views. There is plenty of outside space with terrace's, patio and storage areas. The house also comes with a static caravan brilliant for when you have guests over.
